AMBUSH GALLERY PRESENTS HYPER REALITY DIMENSION XX

Hyper Reality Dimension XX is an express ticket to the world of electric cult mythologies birthed during the antiquated age of CRT TV, VHS, and NES.

It's the summation of all the insane cartoons you've watched during the 80's with adult themes and bad lip-syncing...

All the marked to clear B-grade sci-fi/horror movies your asshole best friend has given you as a "birthday present"...

All the video games whose pixelated graphics were so damn good that they made your eyes bleed and your thumbs sore from extended play...

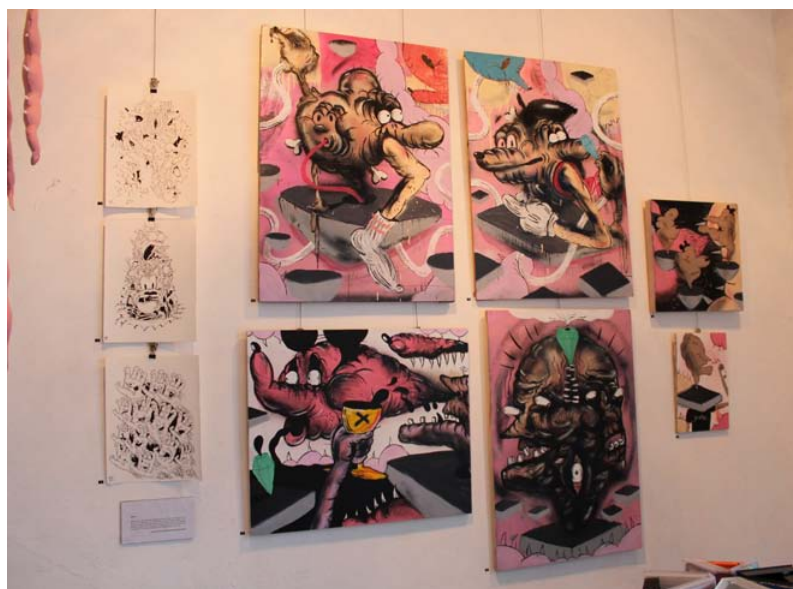

It's the manifestation of all the crazy cult shit that your fragile brain has absorbed growing up as a kid and rediscovered in horror and delight as an adult.

Via various techniques and mediums 20 artists regurgitate and re-imagine the cult classics that they so readily devoured during their youth, expressing the oddities and splendour of the modern electric age that has shaped their early years and has infiltrated their art practice today.

Featuring artists Jodee Knowles, Chris Yee, Rebecca Murphy, HOUL, KID9, OX, Bafcat, Claire Orrell, Sam Octigan, Lizzie Nagy, Gerald Leung, Luke Marcatili, BOB, Iconica, Ala Paredes, Bryn Desmond-Jones, Jonathan Verzosa, Sam Hoh, Jacob Rolfe, and Jin Hien Lau.

For more information please contact info@ambushgallery.com or call 02 8399 0707.

aMBUSH Gallery - www.ambushgallery.com

Based in Waterloo Sydney, aMBUSH seeks to educate and engage new audiences with creative exhibitions and art projects. Presenting original works created by Australia's established and emerging street and contemporary artists, aMBUSH live up to their name by surprising or 'ambushing' their audiences with innovative, experimental and non traditional shows and art projects, both in and out of the Gallery. These carefully developed collaborations provide artists with a powerful commercial platform to reach a broad audience that includes buyers, investors, creative associations, corporations, media and the wider community.

In October 2011, aMBUSH Gallery were awarded the national Australia Council Young and Emerging Artists Award at the 2011 Australia Business Arts Foundation Awards in Perth for excellence in developing partnerships between corporations, artists and the wider community

Viking Beer - www.vikingbeer.com.au

Viking Beer is the fresh new taste from the coolest place on earth. Created from pure glacial waters, Viking is the first Icelandic beer to land on Australian shores and is now available at selected bars.

With 4.4% alcohol, Viking is a low carb, full strength premium golden lager brewed according to the European Pilsner method. Made from a unique combination of malt, hops and barley, Viking has a crisp mouthfeel with some mild maltiness, resulting in a dry finish with a subtle bitterness. It's this distinct taste that has won Viking international awards and made it Iceland's favourite beer from Reykjavík to Raufarhöfn.

When you're in pursuit of pure refreshment, assail your thirst Viking-style. And as we say in Iceland, skál!
